WHAT WE HAVE RELEASED SO FAR AND WHAT'S COMING.

ARRIVING HOME - PART I: TRUTH

[EP]

RELEASE DATE: 03.12.2021

PRODUCED BY ALJOSCHA SIEG / PITCHBACK STUDIOS

The feeling of finally coming home after a long, arduous journey. Finally finding a place where you belong after years of aimlessness. In early 2020, all this manifests itself for 5 established musicians in Arriving Home.

Fueled by rediscovered creativity, the first EP was released just a year later.

Arriving Home's first EP is thematically a reflection of its time. Created during the global pandemic, it processes the feelings of the individual musicians. Feelings that determined their everyday life and sometimes still resonate today and have permanently changed their view of society.

It was important to tame the flood of anger, sadness, helplessness, revenge, fear, love and hate and to remember that only you can bring about a change.

To make one thing clear: It's not about conspiracy theories or any crap like that.
Part I: Truth is a salve for the soul.

„The EP meets the expectations that are fueled. No compromises, hardly any experiments and high-quality produced metalcore [...] the only remaining feeling is that the EP is over too soon.“ (BlattTurbo)

„A metalcore violence emerges from Düsseldorf in the Rhineland [...] a remarkable range of musical elements that should probably cover every taste.“ (OxFanzine)
